

Dr. Kannin Osei-Tutu
Senior Associate Dean
Health Equity and Systems Transformation
Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary

Dr. Osei-Tutu is the inaugural senior associate dean - Health Equity and Systems Transformation at the Cumming School of Medicine having previously served as associate director student advising and wellness in UME, and as director of resident support at PGME. He is well established as a provincial and national leader in change transformation. The founder and president of the Black Physicians' Association of Alberta, he elevates the voices of Black physicians, trainees and learners and is a member of the College of Physicians and Surgeons of Alberta's Anti-racism Anti-discrimination Action Committee. He informs the development of policies, educational programs and curricula that are inclusive and has established partnerships with regulatory and licensing bodies to advance health equity.

Dr. Osei-Tutu is a hospitalist and associate professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the Cumming School of Medicine, in the University of Calgary.