

Dr. Maria Santana, MPharm, PhD

Dr. Maria J. Santana is a health services researcher, patient and family-centred care scientist, an associate professor in the Departments of Pediatrics and Community Health Sciences at the Cumming School of Medicine, University of Calgary.

She is the provincial director, patient engagement for the Alberta Strategy for Patient-oriented Research; she is the academic director of the Patient and Community Engagement in Research, and the person-centred Care Team.

