

The O'Brien Institute for Public Health &
the Department of Community Health Sciences present:

Bibliometrics: Responsible Use in the Age of Big Data

Speaker: Dr. Jenny Godley

Friday, October 26, 2018 - 12:00 to 12:50 p.m.
G500, Health Sciences Centre, 3330 Hospital Dr. NW, Calgary

Dr. Jenny Godley will provide an introduction to the science of bibliometrics. We will cover traditional bibliometric sources and methods, as well as more recent innovations such as 'altmetrics'. We will examine and critique current uses of bibliometrics, focusing on data sources and attribution errors. We will end with a discussion of the Leiden Manifesto for the responsible use of research metrics.

Jenny Godley is an Associate Professor in the Department of Sociology, Faculty of Arts, at the University of Calgary. Her research focuses on understanding the pathways through which social class and other forms of social inequality affect health. She has been on the OIPH Executive Committee as the Co-Lead for Research Impact Assessment since 2014.

Objectives:

1. Introduce the audience to the science of bibliometrics.
2. Examine and critique current uses of bibliometrics, focusing on data sources and attribution errors.
3. Introduce the Leiden Manifesto for Research Metrics.
